

According to the complete set of results published in CLRG's Rince Magazine, there were no prizes awarded to anyone from Eastern Canada at the 1973 CLRG World Irish Dancing Championships (held at the Mansion House in Dublin, Ireland on April 21-22-23).

The Butler Academy took a troupe of 35 dancers this year, including their award-winning figure dancing team "The Foxhunt" (pictured below). 1973 was the first year that Figure Dancing competitions were held at the World Championships.

35 dancers
to compete in Dublin

Thirty-five Metro dancers will compete in the annual Irish traditional dancing competition in Dublin this Easter weekend.

The eight boys and 27 girls range in age from 8 to 19 and are students of the Butler School of traditional Irish dancing.

The Butler Academy of Irish Dancing from Toronto, Canada, with their teachers Pat, June and May Butler, rehearsing before taking part in the Irish Dancing Championship of the World Competition held in Dublin. The Butler Academy winners of the New York 1972 All-American Irish Dancing Championships were on their third visit to Ireland. Included in the group are: Vivian Fogarty, Michele Shanahan, Kim Horner, Josephine Ward, Marie O'Donnell, Ann O'Neill, Carol Scott, Ann O'Sullivan, Rosemary Fearon, Geraldine Dolan, Vyonne Kelly, Marie McKerady, Ann-Marie Galligan.

