Overseas Award

This award (usually a piece of Irish crystal or a plaque) was awarded to the highest-placing dancer not resident in Ireland and/or the UK for solo events, and to the highest-placing teams not resident in Ireland. This began as the Bord Failte award in 1972 (and was re-branded as the Aer Lingus award in 1974) as a way to guarantee recognition to dancers from all over the world, when the majority of prizes (at least in the early years) remained in Ireland. NOTE: The award was never presented to a dancer or team that placed first!

GALWAY, Ireland

Canada won a silver medal at the 19th World Irish Dancing Championships, which drew more than 4,000 participants from nine countries.

Ryan Carroll of the Butler School in Oakville, Ont., won second place in the competition for 15- to 17-year-old boys Thursday night.

There were 19 teen-agers in the competition from Australia, Scotland, Ireland, England, Wales, Canada and the United States.

The championships, which started March 26 and will end tomorrow, are being held in Galway for the third time.
