

According to the complete results published in Ceim magazine, the following Eastern Canadian dancers were recognized at the 1974 CLRG World Irish Dancing Championships (held at the Mansion House in Dublin, Ireland on April 12-13-14):

1. Girls 11-13 Ann O'Sullivan, Butler Academy – Aer Lingus Award
2. Girls 13-15 Rosemary Fearon, Butler Academy – Aer Lingus Award

Aer Lingus Award

This award, formerly the Bord Failte Award (which, as of 1974, was awarded to the top-placing teams from outside Ireland), was presented to the highest-placing dancer not resident in Ireland or the UK in each of the ten solo championship events. Note: the article below suggests Timmy O'Hare was from Canada, but it was his teacher Ron Plummer who was from Canada, which is why Timmy (who was American) is not listed above.
